

Meet Dan Grunewald

Dan is from Jefferson County, Wisconsin and has a horse training facility located in Helenville, and has been involved in the horse industry his entire life. Growing up around horses he has gained a wealth of knowledge and is always willing to learn more. This has allowed him to become the successful horseman he is today. Whether Dan is judging, showing, or hosting a clinic, he is devoted to helping his students and horses understand what it takes to get to the next level. Dan's high energy, expertise and love of the horse industry shows in everything that he does. Dan has been an advocate in getting our youth involved more in the industry.
